Freshman index is calculated by combining the high school grade point average (GPA) with the highest earned SAT or ACT score. The high school GPA is calculated by the Office of Admission using core academic classes only. Applicants must meet a minimum freshman index of 1830 to be accepted to Dalton State.

SAT Freshman Index Formula	ACT Freshman Index Formula
Freshman Index = (500 x High School GPA) + (SAT Critical Reading) + (SAT Math)	Freshman Index = (500 x High School GPA) + (ACT Composite x 42) + 88
